June 24 - 29			Service week to various sites

Students are required to participate in all classes, retreats and service projects.

Service Project Opportunities:

Students will be expected to participate in various Service Projects. Projects include the Anointing mass and luncheon for our senior citizens on Saturday, April 22 from 10:00 to 1:30 PM, as well as the Service Week in June.

Service Week:

During the final week of June, all students have the opportunity to participate in service projects to area sites and at the parish. The effort ranges from a day or two to the entire week. More information about the service projects will be discussed in class. Ordinarily we visit three different sites throughout the week for a variety of involvement. These include the House of Peace in Ipswich, The Agape Community in Ware, and the St. Francis and Theresa Catholic Worker House in Worcester.
